

A Bright Shine for Nickel Plate

Most substances professing to keep plated ware in bright, shiny condition contain harsh, gritty substances, which scratch the nickel and silver plate. Warm suds of Gold Dust washing powder and water will, however, clean these fixtures thoroughly and safely. When dim, rub a little of the Gold Dust directly on the surface, rinse and rub dry with a piece of soft linen or flannel. Nickel, lightly washed each week in Gold Dust and water, and wiped with a soft cloth, will never get dull or need hard rubbing.

WARNING.

For City Meeting, to Be Held Nov. 29, 1910.

The legal voters of the city of Barre, Vermont, are hereby notified and warned to meet in Miles' hall in the city of Barre on Tuesday, November 29, 1910, at 8 o'clock p. m., to transact the following business:

First, to elect a moderator to preside at said meeting.

Second, to see if the city will vote to issue its water bonds for the purpose of refunding the city treasury with the amount of money which has been paid out from the same on account of the construction of the new Orange brook reservoir; and to determine the amount of said bonds to be issued, the rate of interest they shall bear, what date they shall be payable, and whether the same shall be registered or have interest coupons annexed; and whether the city will authorize the treasurer to negotiate a temporary loan or loans of not more than the amount of such bonds in anticipation of the issue of the same, and to issue the notes of the city for such temporary loan, to be paid from the proceeds of the bonds when issued; or to take any other action that may be lawful or required in the premises.

Third, to do any other business that may be properly introduced.

Dated at the city of Barre this 19th day of November, A. D. 1910.

MONTPELIER.

Silver Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Blackall Observed.

Over sixty friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blackall met at their home on Fullerton avenue Friday evening to assist them in celebrating their silver wedding anniversary. The gathering was in the nature of a surprise and many gifts of china, cut glass, silver and a picture were left to remind them of the occasion. Mary Waite Allen read an original poem, and after the presentation of the gifts by Arthur Allen and a response by Mr. Blackall, refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Blackall have lived in Montpelier ever since their marriage.

Norman Lillie, the 10-year-old son of D. K. Lillie, was hit Friday by a shot from an air gun, being struck in the eye. No serious results are expected.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Webb leave Saturday for Washington, D. C., where they will spend the winter. Mr. Webb being secretary to Senator W. P. Dillingham.

Dr. W. R. Harkness is taking a four weeks' special course in the New York Post Graduate school in New York City. He will study especially general surgery and internal medicine.

The Odd Fellows hope to have their new building ready for occupancy by the first of January. Offices are to be finished off on the ground floor and the Odd Fellows' rooms will be on the two upper floors.

It is understood that F. L. Laird has negotiated for the purchase of the residence of James E. Davidson of Clarendon avenue and that the papers have been sent to Mr. Davidson in Oregon for his signature. The purchase price is said to be $8,000.

No official announcement has yet been received by Postmaster Brown as to the opening of a postal savings bank here, and as it was expected the bank would have been opened by the middle of this month, the lack of notification almost leads Mr. Brown to believe that the report was without foundation.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

NOTHING BETTER THAN "PAGE'S PERFECTED POULTRY FOOD."

D. J. Lambert of Apponaug, R. I., the maker of the famous "Death to Lice" remedies, and who is known all over the country as a poultry expert, says there is nothing better than "Page's Perfected Poultry Food." Here are his exact words: "Battens should vary with different seasons. Some kind of animal food is necessary at all times, and I have found nothing better or handier than 'Page's Perfected Poultry Food.'"

If you want to know more about this food and the best ways of using it, write to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., for his booklet, "Profitable Poultry." It will be sent free, postpaid, to anyone mentioning this paper.

WASHINGTON.

Death of Jeremiah Yeartaw and His Funeral.

The funeral service of Jeremiah Yeartaw, who died at his home in Washington last Friday, was held in the Universalist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Irving Towsley, pastor of the church, officiating. The choir rendered appropriate music. The interment was in the Washington cemetery. J. B. Seaver, Charles H. McAllister, George Flint and Ora Curtis were the bearers.

Mr. Yeartaw, who was in his 85th year at the time of his death, was born in Montreal in 1825. At the age of five years, he went with his parents to Champlain, N. Y. On September 10, 1855, he was married at Essex, N. Y., to Emily Ariel of Westport, N. Y., and for a time they lived at the latter place.

He enlisted in the union army for a nine months' service in the cavalry, but never went into battle. From the army service he came to Washington, Vt., working at his trade of blacksmith. To Tom Allen on the site of the shop where he afterward worked so long. He lived and worked in a number of places in Vermont and New York, making the first permanent location in Chelsea, from whence thirty-five years ago he came to Washington. His wife died twenty years ago.

He was the father of ten children, seven of whom are now living: Mrs. Lyman Dennison and Will Yeartaw of Washington; Frank, not located; Anna of East Hill, Barre; Mrs. Harry Sargent of East Barre; Mrs. Arthur Grant of Woodsville; Mrs. Louis Richards of Boston.

ENTOMBED MINERS LOST.

No Hope of Rescuing the Men at Providence, Ky.

Providence, Ky., Nov. 28.—All hope of rescuing alive any of the 11 miners entombed in mine No. 3 of the Providence Mining company at Providence, Ky., Friday, was dissipated Saturday when the rescuing party reached that portion of the mine where the explosion occurred. Under a mass of debris and in a gas-filled chamber which the government experts could enter only with their oxygen helmets, three bodies were found Saturday. They were so badly mutilated that identification was impossible.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

The "Great Powers" at Opera House All This Week.

The great Powers and grand congress of novelties open a week's engagement at the opera house this evening. In addition to the part presented by the great Powers, Mr. Bert B. Perkins, of New York, who is directing this season's tour of the famous hypnotist, has surrounded Mr. Powers with a grand congress of novelties in order that the performance may be more novel and diverting in every particular. In addition to the mysterious, excellent comedy and musical features will be interpolated one of the most weird and startling illusions ever introduced on the stage, the original Keller spirit cabinet. Another illusion of less promise but equally as puzzling will be the famous Hindu trunk mystery which will show how a woman can be created out of space. These in addition to several excellent comedy vaudeville features should prove a program that will satisfy the most seasoned theatregoer. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

ST. JOHNSBURY.

A party of twenty men gathered at the house of ex-representative Harland B. Howe Friday night for the purpose of fraternizing socially and, incidentally, inquiring from Representative Charles A. Calderwood and Senator David E. Porter, how things were going in legislature. A very delectable dinner was served, and then the time was spent in a very profitable way, and at times the debate waxed decidedly interesting since there were members of both parties present.

The best way to carry Ashes is in a Hod!

Crawford Ranges

Have an Ash Hod in the base into which all the ashes fall far below the fire. They can't bank against the grates and warp them, and they can be emptied easily without spilling.

The Coal Hod is alongside the Ash Hod—out of the way. This feature is a wonderful labor and trouble saver and is patented.

Another trouble-saver of the Crawford is the patented Single Damper. One motion—slide the knob to "kindle," "bake" or "check"—the range does the rest. No damper mistakes.

The Oven has cup-joint heat flues that heat it alike in all parts.

U. S. HAS BIG GAIN IN CENSUS.

American Flag Floats Over 103,992,757 People.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The United States has passed the 100,000,000 mark in population. Including the Philippine islands and Porto Rico, and not including Guam and part of the islands of the Samoan group, the American flag floats over a population of 103,992,757.

Exclusive of the Philippine islands, Porto Rico, Guam and Samoa, but including Alaska and Hawaii, the population of the United States is 83,471,948. Ten years ago the population of the same territory was 76,303,387.

It will be several weeks before the official figures are made public by the census bureau, but there is no doubt that the foregoing figures are very close to the mark. They are based on the percentage of gain shown by the population statistics of 18 states and territories which have been compiled officially by the census bureau experts.

These 18 states and territories show a total gain in the last 10 years of 5,131,425, or 21.8 per cent. According to the census experts, the percentage for the country as a whole will be slightly greater. It is believed that the percentage of gain for all the states and territories will be approximately 22.5 over the census of 10 years ago.

On the basis of this percentage, the United States has gained 19,100,701 in population in the last decade. Excluding the Philippines and Porto Rico, the gain of the nation in 10 years was 17,168,261.

The percentage of gain for the country as a whole was greater in the last 10 years than in the preceding decade. From 1890 to 1900 the gain was 20.7 per cent, as compared with 24.9 per cent. from 1880 to 1890.

The greatest percentage of gain made by the United States was 35.9, this being in the decade from 1840 to 1850. The gain in continental United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, in the decade from 1890 to 1900, was 12,168,261, as compared with 17,168,261 in the last decade.

Of the states and territories whose population has been compiled and announced officially, all except Iowa show an increase over the census of 1900. Iowa shows a loss of 7,982. The greatest gain was made by New York—1,844,388—while the greatest percentage of gain, 67.7, was made by New Mexico. Arizona was second, with a gain of 60.2 per cent.

PARADE OF A SEA QUEEN.

The Prettiest Girl in Naples Crowned With Much Ceremony.

On account of the cholera the authorities of Naples, where the inhabitants practically live on fruit and vegetables during summer, prohibited the characteristic feast of Pedigrotta, a festival of the Virgin. It was originally a pagan rite resembling the saturnalia, but since 1850, it has been celebrated with great magnificence in memory of the victory of Charles III. over the Austrians at Velletri in 1744.

This feast, which was formerly the greatest in Naples, has now become chiefly a night affair, celebrated in an uproarious manner in and around the grotto of Posillipo.

The prefect of Naples ordered all the wine shops to be closed during the night and strong detachments of police and soldiers were stationed to disperse the crowds in case the Neapolitans, unheeding the prohibition, assembled near the grotto of Posillipo. Precautions taken were, however, useless, as the order of the prefect was implicitly obeyed and the feast was not celebrated. But the Neapolitans were not to be deprived of their annual merry-making, and instead of the usual pageants which characterized the festival, they organized a novel show, thus incidentally instituting a new annual festival. Following the example of Paris, the Neapolitans every year select the prettiest girl of the city and elect her queen of the sea. The election is undertaken according to certain rules and is quite impartial. Twelve candidates, one from each district of the city, are selected and the prettiest one among them is elected queen, while all the others are appointed her maids of honor. The queen is proclaimed and crowned with a great deal of ceremony; escorted by her maids of honor she parades the streets, presides at a banquet and attends a festival organized for the occasion; finally she takes part in a great parade on the sea seated on a throne erected on a gallery decorated with flowers and flags. This year the fetes in connection with the queen of the sea were substituted for the festival of Pedigrotta and the queen of Genoa and the queen of Paris, attended by their respective courts, were invited to Naples on purpose.—Chicago Daily News.
